

user has experienced problems previously with water leakage from the packing cooling system. If water carries over from the PET compressor to the bottle blowing production line, this results in clouding of the normally clear PET bottles, which obviously creates great problems for Coca-Cola.

FOR MORE INFORMATION PLEASE CONTACT:

www.hoerbiger.com

7/13/03